

Sunday 12 August 2018
12:00pm – 7:00pm	Registration Opens – Melbourne Room Foyer
1:00pm – 4:00pm	ASAV Innovation & Research Symposium – Plenary
6:00pm – 7:30pm	Welcome Reception – Melbourne Room Foyer
Monday 13 August 2018
Time	Small Animal Stream Plenary 1	Sheep, Camelid, Goat Stream Room 203	Behaviour Stream Room 110
6:45am - 8:00am	Royal Canin Breakfast Session – Room 110 Not diagnosing enough multidrug-resistant Staphylococcus? How to get more in your clinic! Dr. David Robson
8:00am - 8:15am	Conference Welcome &amp; Open – Plenary 1 Dr Mark Kelman, Dr Robert Suter &amp; Dr Jacqui Ley
8:15am - 9:15am	Opening Plenary – Plenary 1 Work life balance Speaker to be announced soon
9:15am - 9:55am	Are we there yet? Can ultrasound give us all the answers when investigating urinary tract disorders? Cathy Beck	Talking to owners whose livestock have names Sarah Britton	Triage and Treat Any Behaviour Problem- how to organize your thoughts when presented with a behaviour case Laurie Bergman
9:55am - 10:15am		Hello...does anyone here think they are a farmer? Natasha Lees
10:15am - 11:00 am	Morning Tea - Exhibition Opens
11:00am - 11:40am	Urolithiasis Diagnosis and Management Hattie Syme	HELP!!! My pet goat/sheep got into the chicken feed, and other abdominal emergencies Sandra Baxendell	Deciphering Behaviour and Defining Success Laurie Bergman
11:40am - 12:00pm		Can I adapt my small animal dispensary to treat pet livestock? Ray Batey
12:00pm - 1:00pm	Feline Lower Urinary Tract Disease - An update Hattie Syme	They seem a bit sloshed: investigating neurological signs in small ruminants Peter Windsor	Anxiety: The Root of All Evil- understanding the role of anxiety in veterinary behaviour, including some psychopharmacology Laurie Bergman
1:00pm - 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm - 3:00pm	Difficult Urinary Tract Infections - Part 1 - Diagnostic Approach Hattie Syme	When Post-mortem is not an option Sue Beetson	Things That Go Bump in the Night- when pets won't let their owners sleep Laurie Bergman
3:00pm - 3:30pm	Problematic Urinary Tract Infections Steve Holloway	Clinical perspective: Aren't goats just sheep whose tails point upwards? Kylie Greentree	Pets and Kids- lessons I've learned as a (somewhat) successful pet and person parent Laurie Bergman
3:30pm - 4:00pm		Clinical perspective: How to examine an alpaca Jane Vaughan
4:00pm - 4:30pm	Afternoon Tea
4:30pm - 5:00pm	Interventional Techniques - Urinary Tract Hattie Syme	Practical advice for sedation and anaesthesia of alpacas Mark Hawker	Connected Pets- new products, apps and ideas to help our patients Laurie Bergman
5:00pm - 5:30pm		Panel Discussion Speakers from all SCVG sessions
5:30pm - 8:30pm	Exhibition Night Stand-up Dinner – Melbourne Room

Tuesday 14 August 2018
Time	Small Animal Stream Plenary 1	Sheep, Camelid, Goat Stream Room 203	Behaviour Stream Room 110
6:45am - 8:00am	Hill's Pet Nutrition Breakfast Session – Room 110 Panel Q&A: Hot Topics in Feline Medicine Dr Lisa Singer
8:15am - 9:15am	Plenary 1 Q fever: are we protecting our vets, nurses and clients?" Katrina Bosward &amp; Jacqueline Norris
9:15am - 10:15am	Plenary 1 Clinician's nightmare: Multiple hosts, syndromes and sources - single pathogen Milton Mcallister	Creating a Safe Clinic Jacqui Ley
10:15am - 11:00am	Morning Tea
11:00am - 11:30am	Plenary 1 Clinical toxoplasmosis in companion animals Vanessa Barrs	Targets of Aggression: Familiar versus unfamiliar Jacqui Ley
11:30am - 12:00pm	Plenary 1 Risk factors in feline Toxoplasma gondii infections: An Australian focus. Anthea Brennan
12:00pm - 12:30pm	Update on feline panleukopenia in Australia Vanessa Barrs	Toxoplasmosis in sheep: The Australian story Caroline Jacobson	Making Happy families: Case studies Jacqui Ley
12:30pm - 1:00pm	Love is Blind Bronwyn Orr	Epidemiology of Toxoplasma gondii infection in sheep in the field John Plant
1:00pm - 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm - 2:30pm	Introduction to Laparoscopy David Twedt	What are reasonable expectations of ovine toxoplasmosis vaccine? Kim Kelly	Why cats fight? Aggression issues between cats in the same household and other outside cats. Kersti Seskel
2:30pm - 3:00pm		Research priorities for toxoplasmosis & the Apicomplexa Johann Schroder
3:00pm - 3:30pm	Abnormal Liver Enzymes - A clinical approach David Twedt	You want me to do what? Camel castration and beyond Scott Parry	Managing Multi-pet households Kersti Seskel
3:30pm - 4:00pm		Victoria's transition to electronic identification - lessons, opportunities and benefits Charles Milne
4:00pm - 4:30pm	Afternoon Tea
4:30pm - 4:50pm	Common Liver Diseases in the Dog David Twedt	Illuminating in-field molecular diagnostics: A LAMP test for FMD Mark Fegan	What should you do about a "dangerous" dog? Kersti Seskel
4:50pm - 5:10pm		Creating molecular sheds – LAMP and footrot Nickala Best
5:10pm - 5:30pm		Ovine bone marrow fat analysis – a diagnostic test for starvation Troy Raglus
5:30pm - 6:30pm	Happy Hour in Expo – Melbourne Room
7:00pm - 9:30pm	ASAV Recent Graduate Dinner – Cargo Hall

Wednesday 15 August 2018
Time	Small Animal Stream Plenary 1	Sheep, Camelid, Goat Stream Room 203
6:45am - 8:00am	Greencross Breakfast Session – Room 203 Topic and speaker soon to be announced
8:00am - 9:00am	Plenary 1 The post-antibiotic era as it relates to veterinary science Darren Trott
9:00am - 9:20am	Getting to the guts of it: To radiograph or ultrasound the gastrointestinal tract? Cathy Beck	What we know about the distribution of Q fever risk in Victoria in humans and livestock Mark Stevenson
9:20am - 9:40am		Victorian Q fever dairy goat farm outbreak: key findings Simon Firestone
9:40am - 10:00am		Efforts to develop an autogenous Q fever vaccine Gemma Vincent
10:00am - 10:30am	Morning Tea
10:30am - 11:00am	Emerging Newer Liver Diseases in the Dog David Twedt	Topic and speaker soon to be announced
11:00am - 11:30am		Long term monitoring and investigation of production impacts on a Q fever affected farm Jose Canevari
11:30am - 12:30pm	ASAV Annual Meeting and member forum	Panel Discussion Q fever outbreak: Managing the risk
12:30pm - 2:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm - 3:00pm	Chronic Hepatitis - Latest update in the dog David Twedt	Hugh Gordon Memorial Awards
3:00pm - 3:20pm	Update on Feline Liver disease David Twedt	Behavioural indicators to inform animal welfare prosecutions Robert Suter
3:20pm - 3:40pm		Guidance for involvement in animal welfare cases Michael Paton
3:40pm - 4:00pm		Using forensic science to investigate rib fractures in lambs Colin Trengove
4:00pm - 4:30pm	Afternoon Tea
4:30pm - 5:30pm	Acute Pancreatitis in the Dog David Twedt	SCGV Annual Meeting
7:00pm - Late	ASAV Awards & SCGV 'Galah' Dinner - Metropolis

Thursday 16 August 2018
Time	Small Animal Stream Plenary 1	Sheep, Camelid, Goat Stream Room 203
8:00am - 8:30am	Pregnancy and Diseases of Pregnancy Phil Thomas	Veterinary involvement in RDE delivery – opportunities for consultants, benefits for industry Brown Besier
8:30am - 9:00am		Sheep parasites: Do vets have a role in advising farmers? Susan Swaney
9:00am - 9:30am	Topic soon to be announced Xavier Schneider	Why have we failed to provide an effective veterinary service to sheep? John Maxwell
9:30am - 10:00am		Theory of sheep farmers' decision-making when facing disease Caitlin Pfeiffer
10:00am - 10:30am	Morning Tea
10:30am - 11:30am	Parturition, Dystocia and Timing of Elective Caesarean Phil Thomas	From over the fence: What is the future role of vets in extensive livestock systems Helen McGregor &amp; Caitlin Pfeiffer
11:30am - 12:30pm	Topic soon to be announced Xavier Schneider
12:30pm - 1:30pm	Lunch
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Urogenital cancer Maureen Cooper	Drivers of veterinary contact among farmers: Improving communication effectiveness Marta Hernandez-Jover
2:30pm - 3:15pm	Afternoon Tea - Exhibition Closes
3:15pm - 3:35pm	Cancer: above the belt and below the diaphragm! Maureen Cooper	Strategies to minimise resistance in sheep blowfly Nicholas Rolls
3:35pm - 3:55pm		Calcium improves the health and welfare of ewes and lambs Colin Trengove
3:55pm - 4:15pm		The virtual sheep Stuart Barber
4:15pm - 4:45pm	Q & A Session All Available Speakers	ASKBILL- using farm data to manage animal health and production Mary Goodacre
4:45pm - 5:15pm		Topic and speaker soon to be announced
5:15pm - 5:30pm	Conference Closing – Plenary 1 Dr Mark Kelman &amp; Dr Robert Suter
5:30pm - 6:30pm	Farewell Drinks – Boatbuilders Yard
6:30pm - Late	Paraboss Sheep Parasite Management Workshop Dinner - Bangpop Thai Restaurant

*All catering breaks will be held in the exhibition (Melbourne Room).

**This program was accurate at the time of printing/publishing but is subject to change. For the latest program visit www.asavconference.com.au.